

Rives Named Secretary Of Embassy at Vienna

Succeeds Chandler Hale—Francis M. Wright and Fenton W. Booth Appointed Judges. Nine Brigadier Generals.

The Senate received today from the President a number of important nominations, including that of George B. Rives, of New Jersey, now second secretary of embassy at Vienna, to be secretary of embassy there.

The incumbent of that position is Chandler Hale, a son of the Maine Senator. No announcement has yet been made as to what disposition is to be made of his services.

Two Illinois Judgeships.

Two other nominations of interest are the Illinois judgeships, concerning which there has been much discussion. There has been a belief that the President would have liked to name James S. Harlan, of Chicago, son of the Supreme Court Associate Justice, but finds it inadvisable to do so at the present time, when another brother, John M. Harlan, is running for the Chicago mayoralty.

The nominations made, as the choice of the Illinois Senators, are as follows:

Justice—To be United States district judge for the Eastern district of Illinois, Francis M. Wright, of Illinois.

To be judge of the Court of Claims, Fenton W. Booth, of Illinois.

Under the Treasury Department these appointments were announced today:

To be collector of internal revenue, Louis P. Summers, of Virginia, for the Sixth district of Virginia.

To be collector of customs, Clarence L. Hobart, of Washington, for the district of Alaska.

To be captain on the "permanent waiting orders" list of the revenue cutter service, First Lieutenant Thomas Mason, of Massachusetts.

To be a surgeon, with rank, pay, and allowances of a first lieutenant, in the revenue cutter service, Samuel J. Call, of California.

Also a number of promotions in the army, to be brigadier generals, as follows:
